Join us for stimulating discussions of selections from great world literature, beginning Thurs., Feb. 16 from 7:30-8:45 p.m. Each discussion will be guided by a trained leader who may ask questions, but not answer them. Using the ‘shared inquiry’ method, readers explore their understanding of a thought-provoking work of literature or philosophy in a well-conducted discussion, allowing participants to reach a level of insight not often achieved when reading alone. Readings are from the Great Books Foundation’s Taking Action and the 75th Anniversary, Vol. 2 anthologies, available from the foundation: http://www.greatbooks.org. Copies may be available through your local library.

The first meeting on Feb. 16 will be on Zoom but beginning on March 2, the group will resume in-person discussions at Briarcliff Manor’s William J. Vescio Community Center. To register and receive meeting information, please email your name and phone number to sas246@optonline.net.
